1. Age Eligibility: Minimum age is Male 17 (born 1995 or before), and Female 15 (born 1997 or before).

2. A maximum of 20 ‘available’ athletes will be selected subject to funding as follows:

   2.1. Priority selection will be given to the 12 highest ranked ‘available’ swimmers in Olympic events based on SwimNews World Long Course Rankings (absolute) as published on the 13th August 2012.

   2.2. Swimmers identified in 2.1 will be selected to compete in their highest ranked individual Olympic event. However, if more swimmers are identified in 2.1 for the same individual event than available entries in that event (as determined by the European SC meet entry conditions), then the highest ranked swimmers in that event will be selected.

   2.3. Where places remain in Olympic & non-Olympic events, selected swimmers may be offered additional individual events if the National Performance Director views participation will not detract from the swimmer’s performance in their main event.

   2.4. Subject to funding, the National Performance Director may use his discretionary power to select up to a maximum of 8 ‘available’ additional swimmers for relays and individual events (Olympic and Non Olympic events) on the basis that their participation will provide senior competition experience and advance their podium potential in future competitions. Swimmers’ performances in 2012 will also be a consideration.

   2.5. The National Performance Director must be satisfied that selected swimmers are back in full training and have demonstrated an uncompromised commitment to preparation for peak performance at the World Championships 2013 and Commonwealth Games 2014.

3. The National Performance Director will assume the role of Team Leader for the European Short Course Championships 2012.

4. The Head Coach for the 2012 European Short Course Championships will be appointed by the National Performance Director.

5. Team coaches for the 2012 European Short Course Championships will be selected by the Head Coach in consultation with the National Performance Director from ‘available’ coaches who have placed athletes on the team.
