

2016 Olympic Games Diving Selection Document for Great Britain Selection Policy Information

Overview:

This document is intended to provide transparency on those factors, which make up the selection process for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

Rationale:

Diving is an extremely subjective sport and thus there will be a significant component of subjective decision making in regard to final selection of the team.

The size of the Olympic Team will be up to a maximum of sixteen (16) athletes, although some of the divers will double up in events reducing the amount of divers. The selection process and dates are outlined in this document. The British Swimming Diving Performance Management Group (PMG) endorses this selection policy.

Final selection is at the sole discretion of the British Olympic Association (BOA) and will be based on nominations made against this selection policy. Nominations will be submitted to the BOA and following ratification by the BOA, the team will be announced (by the BOA in consultation with British Swimming). It is important to note that an athlete being selected to the Olympic Team and nominated to the BOA does not guarantee participation in an Olympic Diving Event. The NPD has sole discretion to decide the composition of the synchronised diving teams whilst at the Olympic Games.

Olympic Diving Events – men and women:

3 metre springboard
10 metre platform
3 metre synchronised
10 metre synchronised

Athlete Quota – men and women

68 competitors in the men's events and 68 competitors in the women's events
A total of 136 divers attending the competition
Maximum of 34 competitors per individual event
Maximum of two divers per country in each individual event
Maximum of one synchro team per country in each synchronised event

NOC Entries per Event

Individual event – up to two divers may participate in each event per nation, subject to quota places having been qualified. Divers of individual events must fulfil the qualification requirements of that event.

Synchronised event – two divers (one team) may participate in each event, subject to the relevant team quota place having been qualified.

Great Britain Olympic Qualification:

Athletes competing in Phase 1 and Phase 2 below will be competing for qualification places for Team GB at the Olympic Games and not individual places on the Olympic Team. Qualification of a quota place does not guarantee selection to the Olympic Team.

Athletes will be selected for an individual place on the Olympic Team in Phase 3 – Final Selection, subject to the NPD using his discretion to select an athlete at any time prior to Phase 3.

If the NPD exercises his discretion to select an athlete prior to Phase 3, the NPD will consider athletes performances and results in Phase 1, Phase 2 and any of the “7” competitions set out below.

Additionally, the NPD may consult with any relevant individuals, including the Performance Manager, Junior Development Manager, Head of Science and Medicine, Chief Medical Officer and Head Physiotherapist.

Selection to the Olympic Team shall be at the sole discretion of the National Performance Director (“NPD”).

The three phases for qualifying for the 2016 Olympic Games are:

1. FINA World Championships – Kazan, Russia
25 July-02 August 2015
2. FINA Diving World Cup – Rio, Brazil
19-24 February 2016
3. British Diving Championships – Sheffield
12– 14 June 2016

The above table (Phase 1 and Phase 2) shows how British Diving will achieve qualification places for Team GB for the individual events at the 2016 Olympic Games and this will be a maximum of 8 individual places.

The minimum qualification points for women's individual events are taken from the 2015 FINA World Championships and using the 18th place score from the preliminary events and 12th place from semi-final and then rounded up.

The minimum qualification points for men's individual events are taken from the 2015 FINA World Championships and using the 12th place score from the semi-final and the 3rd place from the final and then rounded up.

Selection Criteria

The NPD has also identified the following "7" (see NOTE below) competitions for athlete performance monitoring in the build up to Phase 3 and the NPD's final selection of athletes, subject to early selection by the NPD as set out above. The NPD will use these competitions to assist his decision making however, performances at these competitions will only be used as a guide

Athletes should note that selecting the composition of athletes seeking to compete in the synchronised diving may mean that an individual athlete may secure a better record at the identified selection events and /or the "7" competitions but this does not mean that the athlete with a better individual record will be selected. The NPD will be selecting the composition of the athletes to compete in the synchronised diving not necessarily the athletes that has a better scoring record.
